

□  The Qur'an, crime and a philosophy of punishment

Articles

Understanding Islam

Saturday, 26 Ramadaan 1429 is the second of four Ramadan Special essays published by Jama Masjid

Those who proclaim 'God's Supremacy' in their Constitution (&quot;Whereas the People of Trinidad and

The Qur'an has declared blasphemy the only sin the Lord-God would never forgive, i.e., if one dies with

It is amazing, really, that western (i.e., Judeo-Christian) secular civilization that was born in Europe, and

Secular chickens come home to roost

There are many in the modern secular world who, thoroughly brainwashed by the modern godless wes

God's Laws of Punishment - Three Categories of Crime

In His wisdom the Lord-God has prescribed such punishment that result in constantly decreasing crime

We also seek through these essays to fulfill the Divine command to be shuhada 'ala al-Naas (i.e., witness

Reformatory punishment

An example of punishment Retributive punishment the criminal is that prescribed for consumption of intoxic

When a crime results in Deferential punishment of an 'eye' or a 'life', then the law of equity and natural ju

When, however, a crime has the potential of destroying the collective welfare of the people, such as ac

The Qur'an has prescribed, for example, that the hand of the thief should be cut off (Qur'an, al-Maidah,

The punishment for acts What should we do? How should we respond? of terrorism is in the present capacity that if imp

Those who still cling to the religious way of life despite the oppressive impact of the secular state and s